Elevate Your Lifestyle at Bay Plaza A Rare Corner Gem in the Heart of Sarasota. Step into refined luxury with this expansive and elegant condominium in the highly coveted Bay Plaza. Perched on the 4th floor, this stunning corner residence offers sweeping views of the bay, marina, and downtown skyline all from two private terraces above the treetops, creating a serene escape from the energy of the city below. One of the largest two-bedroom plus study layouts in the building, this residence enjoys an open and airy floor plan, with nearly 9-foot ceilings, impact-rated windows and sliders, and timeless architectural design by renowned Sarasota School architect Tim Seibert. Built in 1982, Bay Plaza blends classic elegance with modern comforts. A spacious foyer welcomes you into a 20' x 27' combined living and dining area, featuring warm oak wood floors and two sets of triple-glass sliders that open to a generous terrace perfect for entertaining or watching the fireworks over the bay on the Fourth of July. The kitchen layout is designed for both function and flow and includes an abundance of counter and cabinet space. A separate laundry room offers extra storage and convenience. The two private terraces invite morning coffee or sunset cocktails surrounded by nature a true luxury in
